

For immediate release
From Newark Eagles Ball Club

NEWARK... A wild baseball fever has gripped New Jerseyans as the fans look forward to the forthcoming world's series between the Newark Eagles, winners of the Negro National League championship, and the great Kansas City Monarchs, who won both halves of the Negro American League title. This marked the first time in ~~existence~~ the history of the Newark Eagles that they have won a league championship.

The Eagles clinched the second half last Wednesday night when they slaughtered the second place Cuban Stars 17-5 to knock them out of the race.

Mrs. Effa Manley, business manager of the Eagles announced this week that the series will open on ~~Monday~~ ^{Tuesday} night, Sept. ~~13~~ ¹², at the Polo Grounds in New York. The game was shifted to Gotham when the Eagles were unable to get Ruppert Stadium because of the Bears being involved in the International League play-off.

The teams will play the second game of the series at Ruppert Stadium on Thursday night, September 19 and then the clubs will jump to Kansas City for single games on Sunday, Sept. 22 and Monday, Sept. 23 and then will return to Newark to finish up the series.

Reports coming out of the West indicate that the Followers of the Monarchs are confident of their team's ability to upset the Eagles in this series. The Monarchs have rolled over all opposition in their league while the Eagles have been just as impressive in winning both halves of the Negro National League race. Both clubs have good pitching, great hitting power and strong defensive outfits.

About 25,000 fans are expected to witness the opening game at the Polo Grounds on the 16th with Leon Day hurling for the Eagles while Clifford Johnson will hurl for the Monarchs.